APPENDIX.

(A)—Report on Domestic Missions.

We, your committee on Domestic Missions ask leave to report that we know of no destitutions within the bounds of this Association.

A. F. ALLEN, Chairman.

(B)—Report on the Bible.

The only book of inspiration, God's law to man. The history of the world's creation. Shows by whom created and how this earth and its inhabitants was brought into existence. That man was the top piece of creation, with the image of God stamped upon him, but by violation of divine law, lost that image, and from then till now, in his corrupt nature, stands averse to God and all that is good, and has not power to reinstate himself into the favor of his Creator, but God's love is made manifest in the Bible, in the gift of his Son to make full atonement for the redemption of the whole world of mankind, that through the merit of Christ he may be reinstated into the favor of God, and him alone. The Bible teaches man his duty to be the beneficiary of the atonement. Faith in Christ and humble obedience to his commands, as taught in his word, then the love and image of God is stamped in the heart and soul of man which makes him rejoice in this life, and will be like Christ in glory. The Bible marks out the Christian duty, it refers to Noah's faith and obedience in that of building the ark, and Abraham's willingness and faith in offering up his son, and Daniel's confidence and faith in God when cast into the den of lions. The Bible shows the power of God as made manifest in the deliverance and preservation of his faithful followers in all ages of the world's history. The Bible affords knowledge for the student, doctor, lawyer, merchant, mechanic, farmer and to the christian soldier of the cross of Christ, as taught in his Glorious Gospel, a balm for every wound. It is the book for all. The Bible strengthens the christian's hope, is an anchor to the soul both sure and steadfast. It points out the evidence of his acceptance with God; it leads the mourners to the fountain of joy; it shows the sinner what he is by nature and what he must be by grace when he is made to rejoice at his deliverance. The Bible teaches the resurrection and blest immortality of soul and body. Christ tells us, "in my Father's house are many mansions." We look for his second coming to take all his ransomed to the courts of Glory, there all whose image has been stamped by the blood of Christ will stand complete, and will be handed over to the Father as heirs and joint heirs with Christ, and will be in the Kingdom as the sons of God. The Bible tells us that those who will not accept salvation on the offered terms of Christ as presented in his gospel, will be banished from the peaceful presence of the Heavenly Kingdom, reaping the reward of eternal death. Then brethren of the Boiling Spring Association, let us take the Bible for the man of our counsel, ever looking to its author for aid to direct us. The Bible, whose pages are light, truth, power, knowledge and the way-bill from earth to Heaven, let us study, practice, teach, be governed by, and keep it in circulation where it is, and aid in sending it to those who have it not, by so doing we are aiding in publishing the Gospel to every creature, one of the last divine commands of the Redeemer.

JER STEPHENS, Chairman.

(C)—Report on Sabbath Schools.

Your committee beg leave to submit, the following: In responding to this duty assigned us, we find it an arduous task to condense our whole thought in so small a compass, and on a subject too, that is so sublime,. Suffice it to say, that the real good resulting from a duly organized and properly conducted Sabbath School is scarcely realized. And it is to be greatly deplored that so much indifference and wanton neglect has marked our Denominational History in the past on the subject of Sabbath School instruction.

Our past failures in this respect may be charged in part to a misapprehension of its real object and true value. The Sabbath School work is evangelical, serving to dispense light and true knowledge, it tends to prune the vine, lopping off all that is immoral and irregular in our thoughts and conduct, and inspiring the mind with what is grand and ennobling. It tends to shape the rude stone for the building. It checks the tide of Sabbath desecration, reverentially influencing the mind. It has been the means in the hands of our God, to call many poor sinners to repentance, next to the church it instrumentally fertilizes the mind and heart which shall ripen into harvest, and become fit meat for the Master's use. The uncomely ground which some have vainly endeavored to maintain, that the Sabbath School work belong to the six days, in order seemingly to screen them from their duty, and to idle away the Holy day is giving away to more sober and due consideration of its true character. It is the Lords work, the laborers in the Sabbath School department, do all for the glory of God and for the saving of the soul, it is free without money, without charge, without price. And we feel to take courage, that these prejudices which have so long embarrassed the work are giving away to a better thought, and that the Sabbath School undertaking is assuring a more promising appearance. There is seemingly a disinterestedness on the part of the parent, which amounts to nonattendance frequently, and is quite embarrassing. Less is done by pastors than we apprehend is required of them for this cause. It is the work of all, and all are directly interested and are held to a strict account. A united effort on the part of the whole would greatly accelerate the work and make a complete success. In concluding this duty we feel disposed to offer suggestions, which we think would be for good. 1st. A thoroughly enthusiastic Sabbath School Lecturer in our bounds would be of much utility. 2d. The adoption of the uniform lessons. 3d. Quarterly reviews. 4th. An annual convention of schools. 5th. A report to the association from said convention. Brethren let us all do what we can for the Sabbath School, and pray the blessings of the Most High to attend our efforts, and make the Sabbath School room a nursery to our God and Christ. All of which we most respectfully submit.

T. H. HOWLE, Chairman.

(D)—Report on Obituaries.

Your committee on obituaries submit the following report: We have received the sad intelligence of the death of Elder Thomas Grogan, who was born March 3d, A. D. 1777, united with the Baptist church at Wolf Creek, Rutherford county N. C., (time not known,) was ordained to the ministry in the year 1835, by Elders Hugh Henderson, Wm. Hannon and Isaac Lamance. He was a useful minister of the Gospel for many years. Departed this life Nov. 8th, 1874, and we hopefully trust has gone to that blissful abode to reap the reward of our Heavenly Master, for "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." Then let us not sorrow as for those who have no hope.

JAS. A. SHADIX, Chairman.

(E)—Report on Temperance.

Your committee on temperance ask leave to report as follows: Inasmuch as the evils of Intemperance, which is the immediate result of so much misery and suffering to our race, and the subject has been from time to time so ably set forth, both from the pulpit and press, and yet the evil is amongst us, amid those eloquent appeals, and men will follow its ungodly, pernicious and soul destroying practice. We find some who profess to be baptists engage in the manufactory and traffic of one of the worst evils that have befallen our race, therefore we would recommend to the churches to deal with such of their members as are guilty of such offenses, according to strict Bible discipline. We could refer you many texts of scripture, but think it unnecessary, as we are commanded to "Search the scriptures," and as we have taken them for our rule of faith and practice, therefore our faith should be made manifest by our works, not by words alone; all of which is respectfully submitted.

A. LEVERETTE, Chairman.

(F)—Report on Queries.

We your committee on Queries, report no Query handed us.

J. M. BARRETT, Chairman.

(G)—Report on Executive Business.

We, the Executive committee submit the following report: We are not apprized of any destitutions in our bounds, and in consequence of very limited means there has been nothing done. Respectfully submitted.

 J. H. ARMSTRONG, Chairman.

(H)—Report on Publications.

Your committee on Publications submit the following :
 Whereas, our people are generally in need of religious literature, we would recommend that every member of this body read the The Baptist, Edited by J. R. Graves. Also The Alabama Baptist, and Smith's Bible Dictionary. We would also recommend that our people purchase and study a good commentary. All of which should be read in connection with the Bible. F. M. CAMPBELL, Chairman.

(I)—Report on Family Religion.

This is a theme about which much has been written in our association. Family is one of the prominent themes of discussion, and we feel that it should be a subject of interest in every family. The Christian Religion was once the topic of conversation among a few people and they are the poor class ; but a considerable change has taken place in reference to this subject. It has been introduced into every department of society, and is made a subject of interesting conversation in churches, court houses, colleges, markets, ships, prisons, hospitals, camps and navies. It calls forth the influence of wealth, learning and talent, employs the deliberations of associations, conventions, general assemblies and parliaments, it sweetens all the enjoyments of a domestic life, stamps dignity on public acts, and lays the foundation of civil governments, it adorns the youthful character, crowns the gray head with honors, tames the savage disposition of man, builds bulwarks of salvation around unprotected innocence, warms the poet's heart and inspires the tongue of the orator, it sooths the sorrows of the bereaved, softens the bed of affliction, and points the dying Pilgrim to his endless rest. Let us consider what is religion : Cicero says, "the theme religion comes from a word which signifies to reconsider, and denotes the diligent study of whatever pertains to the worship of God." With us we feel that the term religion is used to denote that worship and homage which is due to God, considered as our Creator, Preserver, Benefactor, Redeemer, Savior, Governor and Judge. If we understand christianity and are mentally capacitated to distinguish between the christian religion and Pagan, Mohammedan and other religions. We may have what is styled religion of the head, but if we have had an application of the atoning blood of Jesus applied to our hearts by an eye of faith and are made new creatures in Christ Jesus, made heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, we have what is called the religion of the heart. We may now consider the religion of the life and family religion, which ordinance to God's commandments. The inward witness of the spirit is good evidence of a state of grace to ourselves when we feel it. But it is no evidence to our neighbor; he looks for the fruits of conversion or the fruits of the spirit in our manner of life. And in proportion to the greatness of our profession, there must be a corresponding obedience in our lives, if converts we are expected to lead new lives, and if we have grown in grace to a reasonable stature of men and women in Christ Jesus, we are expected to adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things, walking in all the ordinances and commandments of the Lord blameless. The religion of the life also includes supreme love to God, charity and universal good will to man, if we love God, as a natural consequence we love our neighbor, if we love God with the whole heart the consequence is we love our neighbor as ourselves, and if so we will find means to express it. James gives us a striking description of pure religion when he says, "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this," (the marks of it is these) to visit the fatherless and widows in their afflictions and to keep himself unspotted from the world." Notwithstanding family religion has been so long a permanent theme of discussion, yet the want of a more pure and refined family religion is keenly felt by a great many families, and this want is shown in almost every department of interest. We learn that Israel suffered on account of some of her prominent men not having maintained pure and untarnished religion in their families. Eli, the priest, was a godly man, but his sons were wicked; 1st Samuel, 2; 12, 17, and 22, 25; and we learn that curses were pronounced against his house because he had not trained those sons rightly; 3. 12, 14; and no doubt the reason why Samuel, David and Israel had so much trouble, was a want of proper training in the family circle. Solomon says "train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it." And we think that fathers and mothers imbibed with the spirit of Jesus, should think seriously of the duty that is resting upon them, (train up your children in the way they should go.) In Heaven's best boon to earth, we find this scripture command, "let your light so shine." etc., and "go teach all nations; beginning at Jerusalem," (home.) How beautifully can a father or mother let their christian influence be seen at home among their children, in the dining room, parlor, family altar, and in the entire family circle, also in the various departments of life. God has given them their dear children, and also the power to make them either a blessing or a curse to themselves. By a proper training and the sacred influence of the religion of Jesus Christ, they can be made a blessing. The family is the nursery or cradle in which is rocked every virtue and every vice which is produced among men, and if those are presided over by persons having the love of Jesus burning in their souls, beaming in their countenances and showing forth in all their actions what wonderful things will soon be accomplished for the Lord. Brethren we trust that we feel grateful unto God that we know something of the benefits of religious training, and may the good Lord enable us all to keep in remembrance the godly impressions that were made on our minds in the days of our youth.

W. O. JENKINS, Chairman.
